Eligibility for Membership of TISC

In keeping with TISC's constitution, membership to TISC is available to:

- Universities with a physical presence (campus) in Western Australia or
- Other educational institutions that have a physical presence (campus) in Western Australia and offer Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) courses at level 4 (Certificate IV) or higher that provide a pathway into Western Australian universities.

To be eligible, the institution must be an "approved higher education provider" eligible to offer FEE-HELP (as defined by the Australian Government) or a university-owned private provider.

Full Member	Associate Member
Suited to institutions receiving at least 500 applicants every year and wanting to use TISC's services to streamline their application and offer processes. Fully participate in all application and offer processes and services that are provided to Curtin, ECU, Murdoch and UWA.	Suited to institutions that would like a presence in the TISC Guide and website, but prefer to manage their own applications and offers. Have a presence in the TISC Guide and on the TISC website.

For more details on the type of membership, services available to members and the obligations on members please contact the TISC Executive Officer at the above address.

Applications for membership are considered by the TISC Management Committee. The committee meets in early March, June, October and December. The committee reserves the right to limit the number of institutions approved to be members in a given year.

Prospective applicants are to submit an Expression of Interest to TISC's Executive Officer. The Expression of Interest is to include:

- name of institution
- information on the institution; registration of institution, number of students and AQF courses at level 4 or higher offered etc.
- type of membership requested
- contact person details
