FOREWORD

The following information is issued on behalf of the four Western Australian public universities. Its aim is to inform 2018 Western Australian students sitting The Diploma of the International Baccalaureate (IB) about the universities' admission requirements and application procedures.

This information is correct as at 2 July 2018. It is relevant only for admission in 2019 and is subject to change without notice. It should be read in conjunction with the information under Admission Requirements – School Leavers University Admissions 2019 on TISC's website www.tisc.edu.au, and the 2019 TISC Guide, available in August.

UNIVERSITY APPLICATION PROCEDURES

You can only apply through TISC if you're an Australian or New Zealand citizen, or you've been approved or granted Australian permanent resident status. If you're applying for permanent residence, you aren't eligible to apply through TISC until your permanent residence status has been approved or granted. Contact the International Centres of the respective universities for advice.

NOTE: If you have a subclass 457 visa, you aren't eligible to apply through TISC, but must apply direct to the International Centre of the relevant university(ies).

Residency Status Information: You must provide correct details of your current residency status when you apply. If an offer is made to you, and university checks find that you've provided incorrect residency status information, the university concerned will withdraw your offer in accordance with its policies and procedures.

TISC Guide

If you're studying IB at a Western Australian school, you'll receive a free copy of the 2019 TISC Guide through your school in early August. You can find details of university requirements, how to make an application, offers and other information relevant to your application in the Guide or on TISC's website. Make sure that you've read and understood this information so that your application is correct, reflects what you want to apply for and gives you the best chance of receiving an offer of a place.

If you don't understand any of the information provided, contact TISC or the Admissions Centre at any of the four public WA universities.

TISOnline

Apply online via TISOnline. Check details of how to apply in the 2019 TISC Guide or on TISC's website.

Applications open on 6 August 2018. After 11.00 pm (WST) on 28 September 2018 a late fee applies. Applications for Medicine and Dentistry at UWA, and the Bachelor of Medicine, Surgery at Curtin, close at 11.00 pm on 28 September.

As an IB student, you need to begin by registering as a new user on TISC's site. This will generate your User ID, which you then use to apply. You choose your own password. This procedure is different from that followed by WACE students.

As part of your application, you're asked for details of your Year 12 schooling. Answer 'No' to part 1 of the Secondary School Studies at Year 12 level question, as this applies to WACE students. You'll need to answer part 2 of the Secondary School Studies at Year 12 level question, to let TISC know that you're doing the IB. Select 'International Baccalaureate' from the dropdown list as your location, rather than an Australian state or 'Overseas'. Also provide your IB candidate number (personal code) in the space provided when you answer this question.

TISC fees and charges

Your TISC application isn't complete and activated until you've paid the application processing fee. Up to 11.00 pm (WST) on 28 September 2018, this is $40.00. After 11.00 pm on 28 September 2018, you can still apply, but the processing fee becomes $160.00. You can pay the application processing fee online when you apply, or send it or bring it in to TISC.

TISC doesn't refund fees.

Changing preferences

Once you've applied, you can change your university course preferences via TISOnline as many times as you like, subject to deadlines. There's no charge.

Final changes of preference in time for the December offer round close at 11.00 pm (WST) on Tuesday, 18 December 2018, and for the January offer round close at 11.00 pm (WST) on Tuesday, 15 January 2019.

IB RESULTS

You don't need to submit your 2018 IB results to TISC. We can obtain these electronically direct from IB. However, so that we can access your results, you must arrange through your school in advance for your results to be made available to TISC. See the IB co-ordinator in your school to ensure a Results Request is submitted via IBIS on your behalf.

We anticipate that your results will be available to us around 5 January 2019, which is in time for consideration in the January round of offers. Places will be available in all courses for the January round, including quota courses. We won't contact you at that time unless we have problems accessing your results. You won't be able to view them via our site and we won't be able to answer any queries about them. You'll need to contact IB or your school if you have any concerns about your results.

IB SCORE/ATAR EQUIVALENCIES

The Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) is the basis of admission to most university courses. Applicants are ranked in order of merit based on their ATAR.

So that the universities can rank you on the same basis as other Year 12 students, TISC uses a combined conversion table prepared annually by the Australasian Conference of Tertiary Admission Centres (ACTAC) to convert IB scores to the equivalent Australian Tertiary Admission Ranks (ATARs). This table is also used in the Australian Capital Territory, New South Wales, Queensland and Victoria. For background on how this table is constructed see 'Admission Requirements – International Baccalaureate and Interstate Students' on TISC's website. The universities in South Australia, the Northern Territory and Tasmania use a table prepared by the South Australian Tertiary Admissions Centre (SATAC).

The table below gives the Australian Tertiary Admission Ranks (ATARs) corresponding to the various IB scores for 2018. TISC will use this for university admission in 2019.

UWA BONUS

The University of Western Australia will offer a revised selection rank bonus to International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma students, based on the final IB score and the Australian Tertiary Admission Rank conversion. A bonus has been built into the tables below to incorporate a Language other than English (LOTE) with a further adjustment being made according to the result a student achieves in their Mathematics subject. Tables A and B below show the UWA selection ranks for various final IB scores and Mathematics subject grade combinations.

Using Table A for Mathematics studies completed at the Higher Level and Table B for Mathematics studies at completed at the Standard Level, you can work out the UWA selection rank by following the row for your final IB score until you come to the column representing your Mathematics subject grade.

PREREQUISITES

Some university courses in Western Australia require successful completion of prerequisite courses at Year 12 level for entry to the course. In many cases, applicants without prerequisites won't be admitted. In some cases bridging courses may be available, but this could extend the length of the course. Contact the individual university(ies) for further information on courses you're interested in. Murdoch University doesn't require applicants to have undertaken specific prerequisite courses and instead provides introductory units to enable its students to become skilled in specific areas in which they may be lacking.

For some university courses the special requirements may include bridging/special course units, interviews, auditions, folio presentations, manual dexterity tests, aptitude tests, etc. Detailed information is available from the individual universities.

TISC publishes the universities' prerequisites in terms of WACE courses, eg Mathematics: Methods ATAR. The IB subjects equivalent to specified WACE courses are detailed in the table below:

GUARANTEED AND MINIMUM ATARS/IB SCORES

The universities have listed Guaranteed ATARs for most of their courses. If you achieve the Guaranteed ATAR specified for a course on your preference list (and also achieve English Competency and any other academic prerequisites of the course), you are guaranteed to be eligible for an offer in that course. Remember, though, that the actual offer you receive will depend on your preference order. Guaranteed ATARs are included with the Course Codes for 2019 admission in the TISC Guide and also on TISC's website. Some courses have no Guaranteed ATAR listed, as they use additional selection criteria (such as UMAT, audition, interview, etc) and/or have limited places available.

Minimum ATARs have also been provided by the universities for most of their courses. Minimum ATARs show you the rank needed to be considered for entry to a course. However, obtaining these ranks is not a guarantee of being selected for a place in these courses. Some courses will have N/A for the minimum ATAR/Selection Rank, where an ATAR is not applicable due to emphasis on other eligibility criteria.

Check these Guaranteed and Minimum ATARs against the IB to ATAR conversion table (or the UWA Selection Rank tables) to give you an idea of the IB score you may need to obtain in order to receive an offer in the course of your choice.
